2024 JOHN AND KAY EGAN MEMORIAL VICTIM JUSTICE AWARD

The Iowa Organization for Victim Assistance is accepting nominations for the 21st annual John and Kay Egan Memorial Victim Justice Award.

Kay and John Egan were diligent and committed advocates for victim rights in Iowa. As survivors of a homicide victim (their daughter, Ellen Egan, was murdered in 1983), Kay and John brought both compassion and experience to their efforts for victim justice before her death in 1998 and John's in 2003.

A nominee for the John and Kay Egan Memorial Victim Justice Award should be an Iowan who has volunteered time and energy to make a difference for crime victims. IOVA encourages you to consider the contributions of survivors of crime, victim service volunteers, and victim service advocates who contribute to victim rights beyond their job responsibilities.

Nominations are due by Feb. 16, 2024. Nominations may be mailed to IOVA at the address shown above, marked to Attention: Kay Egan Award Committee or sent by e-mail (attach this form to your message) to karlpegschilling@gmail.com. If you submit a nomination by e-mail, please include your contact information in the body of the e-mail message.
